SDS Centers – Elite Network

Certified Subacute Detox Service Providers

SDSCenters.org was founded by a small group of recovering addicts who wanted to take a more isolated and scientific approach to improving the final recovery percentage numbers by the creation of new strategies to reduce recidivism and sustain recovery.

COPi along with the Justice Research and Statistics Association, have certified that the effects of the SDS Centers members more isolated scientific approach to this style of drug rehabilitation versus other subacute detox service providers had positive outcomes in multiple areas.
